

WHERE JAPAN'S ARMY WILL LAND

Probably at Newchwang Which Will be Made Into a Most Magnificent Base.

THE WAR WILL BE A LONG ONE.

Jobs Held Some Enormously Strong
Places Between Hwang
And Seoul.

London, March 24.—The Times this morning publishes an opinion of a correspondent at Newchwang, which will be made into a magnificent base, and he also probably will seize Hainan (15 miles eastward and on the railway) as an additional base, and, without seriously attacking either Port Arthur or Vladivostok, will fight out on the plains of Central Manchuria.

It is almost certain, in the correspondence, that the war will be a long one, and that at the worst Japan will retain a way to retreat overland into Korea. If she secures Newchwang, her prestige will be established, and she will be able to establish a base for the waterways of Manchuria, which will be of inestimable value in somewhat counterbalancing the weakness of Japan in her caving.

War cables up to late this evening are few in number and contain little of importance. No additional details concerning the bombardment of Port Arthur on Sunday last came through. From Tokyo, however, comes the dispatch.

A special dispatch from Moll (opposite Naimonski, Japan) says the Japanese fleet made another attack on Port Arthur March 18, bombarded the city and its defenses and fought a furious engagement with the Russian fleet outside the harbor, destroying one Russian battleship. Seven Japanese casualties resulted. There is no information concerning the Japanese fleet.

The navy department has not been advised of this engagement, but evidently expects news.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says: "According to private advices from Vladivostok, the Russian squadron is still there. Private telegrams received at the admiralty here say that immediately following the Port Arthur bombardment yesterday, the Japanese fleet moved on to the coast of Korea, and the Russians had abandoned the town."

A correspondent of the Daily Mail at Changhai, Korea, describes the perfect organization of the Japanese in Korea. He says the Japanese hold two enormous strong positions at Pingyang and on the Mikol-San Range, between Hwang and Seoul. The latter, the correspondent says, is practically impregnable and secure from land attacks from the northwest. In the event of a defeat, it is intended to hold the passes at Kusan, thus protecting the Pingyang valley. The Japanese troops are suffering from dysentery and pneumonia, and many of the cavalry horses, which the correspondent says are poor, have died, but the army is full of spirit. There are probably 20,000 Japanese at Pingyang.

The Russians intended to make Anju their base, but owing to the delay in the arrival of reinforcements they were afraid they would be cut off, and so retired. Meanwhile the Japanese advanced to Pingyang by forced marches, the troops being almost without equipment.

The correspondent says the Russians are preparing to prevent the Japanese landing at Pak-Chon, 20 miles west of Anju, and he says the Japanese sailors admit that Port Arthur is so protected by mines and torpedoes that it would mean death to approach it.

The stringent Japanese censorship is likely to be relaxed early in April, says the Telegraph's Seoul correspondent. This coincides with the numerous indications of the imminence of land operations.

A Vladivostok dispatch, under today's date, says: "While the situation here remains quiet, it is not expected that Vladivostok will continue to be much longer free from the vigorous operations of the Japanese."

"Anticipation of the appearance of the enemy and of a possible siege, a ladies' circle has been formed, which meets four times daily at the ministry of Marine, preparing bandages of linen for the wounded soldiers and sailors. Most of the women in Vladivostok belong to this circle, including the representatives of the aristocracy."

"A dispatch, 40 miles north of Vladivostok, on the railroad, a committee has been formed under the auspices of the vice governor to collect donations toward the increase of the fleet."

Maximilian Schaefer Dead.
New York, March 24.—Maximilian Schaefer, one of the founders of the first lager brewery in New York City, died, aged 84. He was born in Germany, came over in 1858, and started a small brewery in 1862. He retired years ago with a large fortune.

Geo. E. Yewell Dead.
Baltimore, March 24.—George E. Yewell, one of the last survivors of the Greely relief expedition, is dead from consumption. He was one of the three men with Lieut. Taunt on the exploring party that found the records at Erebus Island, telling where Greely was camped, and he brought the news and was also one of the party to find the Greely survivors at Cape Sabine. Two other members of the party also have died from consumption.

Three Negroes Killed.
Dwight, Ark., March 23.—Three negroes were killed in a battle between negroes and whites today at St. Charles, this county. A posse of deputy sheriffs was engaged in a search for two negroes who yesterday had seriously wounded two white men in a fist fight at St. Charles, and while passing through a section of woodland they were fired at from a thicket by a party of negroes. The whites returned the fire and instantly killed Garrett Wood, Will Madison and Will Baldwin.

May Demand Closed Shops.
Chicago, March 24.—The closed shop was demanded by the stock yards today as the alternative of a general strike. It has been served on one packing firm that it abandoned efforts to charge the unions the closed shop would be called for and that 35,000 unemployed men in the yards would enforce the demand. The packing firms have been made to feel that several of the packers have hired men to create discontent among the unionists. Michael Donnelly, president of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen, investigated and says he found the complaints well founded.

The unions in the stock yards recently formed a close alliance, and some of

Oldest West Pointer Dead.
Indianapolis, Ind., March 24.—General Thomas Armstrong Morris, aged 91 years, of this city, is dead at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Chambers, at San Diego, Cal., where he was staying for the benefit of his health. He was the oldest living graduate of West Point, having received his diploma in 1834. He was a famous engineer and railroad builder, and was a distinguished commander in the Civil war.

To Investigate Fire Insurance.

New York, March 24.—Resolutions have been adopted by the New York board of trade and transportation department, under the leadership of Cortelyou, of the department of commerce and labor, asking that official to cause a thorough investigation into the present methods of doing fire insurance business in the United States in an endeavor to correct alleged abuses. The belief is expressed in the letter to the secretary that methods now prevalent act in many instances to the detriment of the insured party.

To Improve Chicago Police.

Chicago, March 24.—The first step towards improving the Chicago police force, as suggested by Capt. Alexander Piper in his recent report has been made. Chief C. S. Sullivan, announcing 47 promotions to fill vacancies.

There will be a general shake-up of the entire police department as a result of the new promotions. Old men will be shifted to the outlying stations, where the work will not be so hard, and the young and active men will be assigned to the principal stations. The shake-up will be the most thorough in years.

Eight new lieutenants, 14 patrol sergeants, 12 detective sergeants and 12 desk sergeants were named.

A Corot and a Diaz Sold.

New York, March 24.—Two old masterpieces of art have just been sold by dealers here to Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, brother of the secretary of war. The price was approximately $110,000 and the sale represents one of the most important art transactions of the year in this country. The pictures are Corot's "Le Sol" for $75,000 and a remarkable example of Diaz, "Autumn Forest of Fontainebleau" for $35,000. Both canvases are nearly of a size, measuring about 34x44 inches and are in excellent condition.

PANAMA COMMISSION.

It Will Probably be Attached to War Department.

Washington, March 24.—The president practically has determined that the Panama canal commission will be attached to the war department. This proposition is not pleasing to all members of the commission, but the bureau of insular affairs of the war department has been so successful and economical in its management of details of canal affairs in the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico that it is felt to be the proper bureau to look after the myriad details of the government of the canal zone.

Two important points have been developed in connection with the work of the isthmian canal commission. One is that the headquarters of the commission probably will be on the isthmus of Panama, instead of at Washington, although an office will probably be maintained here. The other point is that a part of the time of at least five of the commissioners will be devoted to their private interests.

Admiral Walker, the chairman of the commission, and Gen. Davis, the army member of the body, will devote their entire time to the canal work.

Legislation now pending before Congress provides for the appointment of a governor of the American zone on the Panama canal. If it should be enacted into law it is quite probable that the president may designate Gen. Davis as the governor of the canal strip.

WESTERN STOCKMEN.

They Mean to Establish an Independent Packing Plant.

Denver, March 24.—The News today says: "That the stockmen of the west, backed by the powerful National Livestock association, mean to carry out their project of establishing an independent packing plant to fight the beef trust, is evidenced by the option that has been taken upon the packing plant of Jacob Dold of Kansas City. This option is now in the hands of Vice President L. F. Wilson and Treasurer F. W. Flato of the organization. All the papers incident thereto are also in the possession of these officers, who are carefully making an examination of them with a view of formal acceptance at an early date by the organization, according to Secy. Charles F. Martin of the association, just returned from the east. The option carries with it a lease for 10 years on the property. Dold Packing House has been one of the strongest competitors of the trust. Its capacity is sufficient to kill 2,000 head of cattle, 4,000 hogs and as many sheep daily. According to Mr. Martin the capacity is great enough to answer the business of the stockmen, who are pushing the project to a successful end."

DR. HALL ON DANCING.

President of Clark University Says It Has Curative Power.

Boston, March 24.—In an address before a gathering of church goers here, Dr. G. S. Hall of Clark university, Worcester, has made the assertion that it is probable man gets nearer his lost paradise when he is dancing than at any other time.

"A philosophy of the universe must be written on rhythm," he said. "Thus there is a rhythm of years of seasons. All muscular effort is in rhythm, the action and the reaction but the climax of all rhythm is dancing—not dancing as it is now, but dancing as it was done years ago. If a person is tired, he should dance a minuet, if apathetic, something faster."

"Dancing has great curative powers. The best thing, the great thing, is health, which means holiness. The best kind of happiness is the happiness of being alive, and that is the spirit of dance. Men of 60, 70 and 80 ought to practise it."

TEACHING PATRIOTISM.

Seattle, Wash., Teacher Attacks The Military Idea of It.

Seattle, Wash., March 23.—Utterances of J. A. Kingsbury, principal of the Greenwood, Wash., public schools, created a sensation at the county teachers' institute yesterday. He attacked the methods of teaching patriotism in the public schools, saying:

"You notice that throughout these teaching plans the military idea, and when a war is on, even though it is an inhuman war of conquest, or a war to quell a rebellion if some cranks, such as Patrick Henry, Samuel Adams, Washington, Jefferson or Agassiz, who have the effrontery to doubt a principle, the face of a divine decree or a packed legislature, the watchword of patriotism is: 'My country, my country, right or wrong.' That flabby plea that the patriot in time of war must postpone virtue and if evil be officially decreed, follow the multitude to do it."

THE ALBANIANS ARE SURROUNDED.

Turkish Troops Have Ten Thousand Routed Up at Babatepe.

NOW NEGOTIATING WITH THEM.

Ten Additional Battalions Will be Sent Shalir Pasha, in Command.

Salonica, Macedonia, March 23.—Twelve battalions of Turkish troops, commanded by Shalir Pasha, have surrounded 10,000 Albanians at Babatepe. Shalir Pasha has asked for reinforcements. Ten additional battalions will be sent to him. Pending their arrival Shalir Pasha is negotiating with the Albanians.

London, March 23.—The announcement from Salonica, March 3, that the Albanian revolt had been suppressed was, it appears, somewhat premature. It originated from Turkish sources, where it was believed that the acceptance of the offer of the exemption from the cattle tax at Lp, Albania, would satisfy the Albanians. New evidences of a determined revolutionary movement were reported from Mitrovia, March 4 and March 5, and it was announced at Constantinople that the Albanians had increased their demands, refusing to recognize the reform scheme of the powers and demanding the withdrawal of the new taxes, the abolition of the new civil tribunals, exemption from military service outside of their own province, and the pardon of Hussein Bey, the revolutionist who was exiled in 1903.

Since then Shalir Pasha, with a large force, has been parleying with the revolutionists, under instructions from the portie, which is desirous of settling the Albanian movement so as to avoid complications while negotiating with Bulgaria and in face of the continued troubles in Macedonia. The diffident tactics of Shalir Pasha are reported to have emboldened the Albanian revolutionists, who, according to information contained in the dispatches, have been massing at various points, and it would appear from the Salonica dispatches received today, which was the first report of any considerable assembling of the insurgents, that Shalir Pasha is still continuing the negotiations looking to a settlement, and that the dispatch of reinforcements may be intended as a demonstration in force with the object to secure a final acceptance of his terms.

PARDON FOR AQUINO.

Secy. Taft Recommends Such Action to the President.

Washington, March 23.—The secretary of war has submitted to the president the record of evidence taken in the court martial proceedings against Brig.-Gen. Servilano Aquino, an insurgent Filipino officer, for giving an order for the shooting of five American prisoners, resulting in the death of three of them. The secretary reviews the case at considerable length and recommends that Aquino, who has now been confined for three years, receive a full pardon.

The prisoners were in the custody of a Filipino named Guerrero, in Aquino's command, who was said to have resembled Aquino in appearance. The surviving prisoners claimed that Aquino himself gave the order for their execution, but Aquino, when charged with the crime, insisted that it must have been Guerrero who gave the order. He produced a number of native soldiers to support his contention, and also claimed to have had Guerrero tried by court martial for having executed the prisoners.

Guerrero was found guilty and executed by Aquino's command. A strong point made in Aquino's favor was that he had surrendered to the Americans, knowing that he was to be tried on a charge of having murdered the prisoners. He, however, was convicted by the court martial and sentenced to a term of imprisonment. About a year ago prominent Filipinos and other officials petitioned the government to pardon Aquino.

On closing his review of the case, Secy. Taft said:

"I cannot read the record without feeling that there is a very grave doubt of Aquino's guilt. He is not shown at any time to have been cruel or harsh in a tyrant of the prisoners. On the contrary, so far as the prisoners' own evidence goes, he was considerate with them and interfered to aid them. Guerrero, on the other hand, was a cruel man, as shown by his treatment of them, and the act charged against Aquino was more probably that of Guerrero."

African Revolt.—reads.

Berlin, March 23.—Gov. von Puttkamer of the Cameroons, cables that the revolt of the natives has spread to Cross river, one of the ports marking the boundary of German territory in West Africa, and has extended to British territory in Nigeria, and that the British customs stations at Obum-kum was attacked on March 10. The governor adds that Col. Muller is at Cross river and has the situation in hand.

CHINESE EXCLUSION TREATY.

China Formally Denounces It to State Department.

Washington, March 23.—The state department has received formal notice from the Chinese government denouncing the Chinese exclusion treaty, so this convention will expire Dec. 27, next, unless replaced by another treaty by that date. Under its terms, six months before the expiration of a period of 10 years from Dec. 27, 1904, if either power be dissatisfied with the treaty it is required to denounce it. This is the action which China has taken in spite of the strongest efforts to the contrary on the part of the state department. Had the notice not been served, the treaty would have continued in force for another term of 10 years from Dec. 27, 1904.

The department pointed out to the Pekin authorities through Mr. Conger that it was very probable that so far from bettering the conditions relating to the admission of Chinese into the United States any new treaty would fail of approval by the senate. The Chinese would thus be exposed, in the absence of the sheltering treaty, to the full rigor of the Geary and Helms law and the exclusion would be much more complete than at present.

However, the treaty having been denounced, there is nothing to do but to proceed with the formulation of a new treaty which has already been initiated in a way although with little hope of senatorial approval.

So Declare Learned Medical Writers in London Lancet.

London, March 23.—That leading medical journal, the London Lancet, discusses love as a disease. It declares that the idea of love being really a disease has the sanction of venerable antiquity, and apart from the Greek and Roman classics, was also common place in the seventeenth century.

A writer on medicine in the Lancet goes on to quote from a number of authorities from Galen to Horatius, and concludes: "The Dutch and Flemish painters of the latter half of the same century found in love sickness a favorite subject, and some of the paintings of women suffering from that disease are accurate portrayals of an enameled condition."
